

Resources for frontline service providers and at-risk youth in York Region

Human Trafficking Capacity Building for Frontline Workers

Aura Freedom is offering FREE capacity building workshops for frontline service providers in York Region who support survivors of and those at risk of Sex Trafficking and Gender-Based Violence (GBV).

Our team will work with you to assess your needs and customize a capacity-building workshop or other training engagements that best suit your agency to prevent and respond to sex trafficking and GBV. We also provide consulting and advising on programs and policies relating to human trafficking and gender-based violence.

For more info on a FREE workshop, contact our Senior Manager of Programs & Advocacy, Danielle, at danielle@aurafreedom.org
